

SANTANA

THEY/THEM

SANTANA emerges with passion in the music scene. Born in Barcelona with Dominican-Filipino roots, he ventures into various genres such as hard-groove, hard-house, progressive, and more, exploring his sound identity. Although his career is in its early stages, he has already begun to capture attention with his fresh and unrestrained energy.

His passion for mixing begins in November 2023, and after sessions of practice, he releases his first mix on Soundcloud, SLOW BOUNCE. In January 2024, he releases his next mix with the Musa collective, also aiming to announce his residency within it.

His first live performance takes place at the Musa party at The Garage Of The Bass Valley, receiving a very positive response from the audience.

What distinguishes SANTANA is his style, characterized by bouncy, sexy, and playful rhythms.
